Miss Evans

Role of Parents

- Your role is absolutely crucial to your child's success this year. Their best can be achieved through:
- Support with homework
- Encouraging them to talk about their work
- Attendance and punctuality

Morning Routines

- Mornings- 8.45am doors open. Children to be in by 8.55am.
- Children to come down through the main gate to the classroom.
- Children complete a morning job before we take the register.

Messages/ Letters

- Letters or messages can be given to any staff member who is at the gate in the morning or Y1 staff at the end of the day.

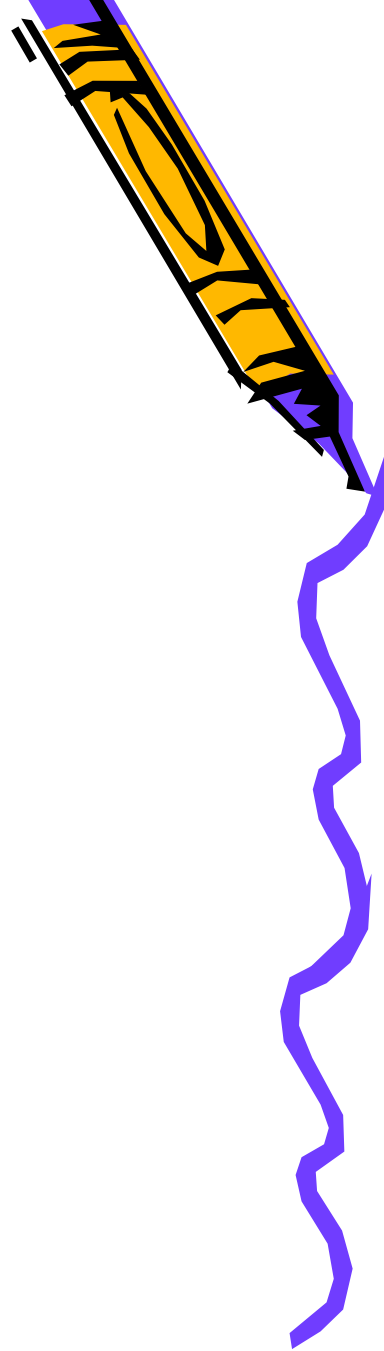

- School Office can be phoned to give any other information such as any changes to home time.

Organisation

- Water bottles
- Read, Write Inc everyday.
- Y1 PPA: Wednesday afternoon.
- P.E lessons: Wednesdays
- Label everything!
- Lost property
- One small toy (pocket sized) can be brought.

Home reading books

- Reading packs should be brought in on Wednesdays and a new book will be sent home on Thursday.
- Access Oxford Owl to read the RWI book we have read in school.
- Read the Story bookbag book in the reading pack.
- Reading Record: What do I write?
  - - how did your child read? (fluently or needed to read some or most words)
  - - Did your child understand the stories? Could they tell you what was happening?

Home reading

- Regular reading (everyday if possible).
- RWI philosophy :
- When learning to read it takes three days to read a book.
- Day 1 - decoding
- Day 2 - ask questions about the text
- Day 3 - try to read again with fluency and expression.

The more that you read,
the more things you will know.
The more that you learn,
the more places you'll go.

Reading for pleasure improves...

- progress in vocabulary development
- enhanced comprehension
- narrative writing
- substantial cognitive development
- general knowledge
- increased attainment in literacy and numeracy
