Nevermoor is a series, not a single book!

ABOUT

Here are two different blurbs of the first book.

MORRIGAN CROW IS CURSED.

Born on Eventide, the unluckiest day for any child to be born, Morrigan is blamed for all local misfortunes, from hailstorms to heart attacks—and, worst of all, the curse dooms her to die at midnight on her eleventh birthday.

But as Morrigan awaits her fate, a strange and remarkable man named Jupiter North appears. Chased by black-smoke hounds and shadowy hunters on horseback, he whisks her away into the safety of a secret, magical city called Nevermoor.

It's in Nevermoor that Morrigan discovers Jupiter has chosen her to contend for a place in the city's most prestigious organization: the Wondrous Society. In order to join, and to stay in the safety of Nevermoor for good, Morrigan must compete in four difficult and dangerous trials against hundreds of other children—or she'll have to leave the city to confront her deadly fate.

Step Boldly...

Morrigan Crow is cursed, destined to die on her eleventh birthday. But, as the clock strikes midnight, she's whisked away by a remarkable man called Jupiter North and taken to the secret city of Nevermoor.

There she's invited to join the Wondrous Society. Mystery, magic and protection are hers – if she can only pass four impossible trials, using an exceptional talent. Which she doesn't have...

WHAT IS THE WUNDROUS SOCIETY?

The Wondrous Society, also known as “WunSoc”, is Nevermoor's most elite organization and institution. Those who are lucky enough to attend the school are lifelong members of the Society, whose membership brings respect, honour, and celebrity-like status for many.

Each member receives a Golden 'W' Pin—to show non-Society members who they are—and a Golden 'W' imprint over the fingerprint on the index finger—to help Society members recognize each other.

In order to join the society, you must first be chosen by a patron, a person already in the Wondrous Society, and then pass a series of trials against hundreds of other applicants, of which only nine children will be chosen (who become a Unit). The first three trials are different each year, but the final trial, the show trail, is always the same: the child shows off their special skill in front of a huge audience.
